Local business consultant joins advisory team of Gazelles International

BRISBANE—March 25, 2011— Queensland business coach Ted Bonel joined the advisory team of Gazelles International, a premiere international executive education and coaching association, this week.

“Ted has shown himself to be an excellent business coach and wonderful contributor to our association, keeping with our core values and standards of excellence,” said Keith Cupp, president and head coach of Gazelles International. “Ted’s particular knowledge and skillful application of the ‘Mastering the Rockefeller Habits’ system for growth will be an asset to other Gazelles International members, as well as his peer guidance and counsel in helping new members grow and thrive in the Gazelles International business model.”

Bonel has led multiple clients and workshops in the Four Decisions™ growth concepts, based on the best-selling book “Mastering the Rockefeller Habits” by Gazelles International founder Verne Harnish. Bonel has also achieved Gazelles International certification, based on his study and mastery of the Four Decisions™ content, application of best practices, and ongoing education by the world’s top thought leaders such as Jim Collins, Tom Peters and Patrick Lencioni.

Bonel is the founder and CEO of Fast100 Growth Coaching, providing consulting and coaching services, such strategic planning, marketing strategies, and business development, to growth companies in a variety of industries in Australia. Bonel has more than 20 years of experience, including as a CEO of fast-growth companies in the public and private sectors and as a small business owner.
